THE TROOP OF 450 IN COGNE FOR THE 16TH MINIMARCIAGRANPARADISO

The legendary battalion of young cross-country skiers has returned to color the Prati di Sant'Orso. Lots of surprises, prizes and fun for everyone. The combined SkiriMini brought many participants from outside the region and some French.

The Minimarciagranparadiso is always a guarantee of public, participants and fun. And even the sixteenth edition proved to be no less. Cogne cross-country stadium full of young cross-country skiers who battled it out in the first of the two days dedicated to them. It was the day of the Baby Sprint, Baby and Cuccioli categories, which competed respectively in distances of 1, 1.5 and 2.5 kilometres.

Blue skies, bright sunshine and an immaculate course were the extra ingredients for a perfect day.

Nothing would have been possible without the great help of all the volunteers and sponsors who supported this first part of the event. The initiative entitled "The Snack of the Champions" was interesting, which saw some local producers as protagonists who set up some banquets in the town square offering snacks to all the participants.
